

City of San Dimas Parks and Recreation Department Teen Action Committee Application

What is the Teen Action Committee?

The Teen Action Committee (TAC) is an organization that consists of teens from grades 6 to 12 who volunteer at community and Student Union events.

What does the Teen Action Committee participate in?

The Teen Action Committee works very closely with the City of San Dimas Parks and Recreation Department to better our community. This year, the Teen Action Committee will be volunteering at the 5K Run, Family Festival and Spring Egg Hunt, Halloween Haunted Hall, Holiday Downtown Extravaganza, and much more. The Teen Action Committee also plans and participates in various fundraisers. In addition, the Teen Action Committee also participates in various community service projects.

Is there a club fee? How can I join the Teen Action Committee?

No, there is no fee to be in the Teen Action Committee since we are a City sponsored group. However, we do have fundraisers throughout the year that Teen Action Committee members are encouraged to help participate in. To join the Teen Action Committee, fill out and return the attached membership application to the Student Union.

What are the benefits of being a part of the Teen Action Committee?

There are numerous benefits why you should join the Teen Action Committee. In the Teen Action Committee, members will be faced with real world situations in organizing and volunteering at events. Members will also have the opportunity to meet new people outside of school and create new friendships. Members will gain leadership experience that will prepare them for future endeavors in life. All members will earn community service hours that can be used for high school credit.

When are the Teen Action Committee Meeting held?

The Teen Action Committee meetings are held every once a month on Thursdays at 4:00 pm at the Student Union (990 W. Covina Blvd.). Meetings are usually 20-45 minutes long and consist of information regarding upcoming City and Student Union events.

Is the Teen Action Committee right for me?

The Teen Action Committee requires a strong commitment from its members. Members should be able to commit to special event and monthly meetings. Members should show that they are leaders in their community by arriving on time to all events and meetings, communicating effectively with all members and having a positive attitude.
