

we all need

for healthy, thriving and engaged communities

JOIN THE CONVERSATION!

We've taken stock of what we have –the existing parks, recreation facilities and open space-and the shape that they are in. Now we need to know what you want.

- What type of recreation is most needed?
- Where do we need new parks, recreation facilities or open space?
- What will make your family and neighborhood healthy and happy?

Join the San Dimas Parks & Recreation Commission as it hosts residents and community partners on Tuesday, January 19 at 6:30pm to create the future of your parks.
